

Brief Curriculum Vitae - Kottis George

He studied at the Agricultural University of Athens, Department of Agriculture Crop Production (1979-1985) and majored in agriculture. During the period 1988-1991, conducted and completed specialization courses seminars in Holland Agricultural University (Agricultural Wageningen University, The Netherlands) and in particular in Section Plant Sciences and specialized topics in plant pathology and plant physiology.

The period 2005-2007, he did his postgraduate studies at the University of the Aegean, Department of Environment, on "Management of coastal areas." Since 2006 is a member of the Environmental Centre of Amfissa.